

Privacy policy

This privacy policy covers the use of the website www.modernbuildingalliance.eu, operated by SEC Newgate EU (the processor) on behalf of Modern Building Alliance AISBL (the controller).

DATA PROCESSING

Online visitors are not required to provide Modern Building Alliance ASBL with their personal data in order to use this website.

To review the privacy policy of SEC Newgate EU, please click here.

COOKIES

This website uses cookies to ensure the website functions properly and to gather some statistics to identify which pages are being visited and the duration of a session. A cookie is a small text file that we send to your internet browser so that we are able to recognise your browser when you return.

We use cookies in compliance with the Belgian law of 13 June 2005 on electronic communications. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer:

- Internet Explorer
- Google Chrome
- Firefox
- Safari

Please be aware that disabling cookies can affect the functionality and features of this website and may prevent you from taking full advantage of it.

USER COMMUNICATIONS

When you send an email or other communication to info@modernbuildingalliance.eu, SEC Newgate EU may retain those communications in order to process your inquiries. Most email messages are deleted after they are responded to. In the event that SEC Newgate EU becomes legally obligated to disclose information obtained from users pursuant to legal or administrative process, SEC Newgate EU will take all reasonable steps to remove personal information from the data where possible.
